02:18:45 Donn Rutkoff: Does the name Jerry Goldsmith resonate with you? Many Oscar nominations, 1 win.

02:24:28 Donn Rutkoff: I just watched The Sand Pebbles, Steve McQueen, and was immediately struck by the score.

02:26:39 Bob Smith: perspective: you may think musical entertainment is a lower priority than medical research, but as someone who spent 50 years in cardiac arrest medical research I can safely state researchers also need a break from serious endeavors. Musical entertainment is huge for such stress relief. Thank-you.

02:27:14 Bill Milgram: Reacted to "perspective: you may..." with ❤️

02:34:02 jimrondinelli: Reacted to "perspective: you may..."

with ❤️

02:34:54 Bill Milgram: Thanks for your perspective and insights. Do you have experience with larger acoustic ensemble recordings? Do you have any go-to techniques like decca arrays and preferring to be minimalistic, or do you like to have the granularity of many spot mics?

02:35:18 Bill Milgram: Maybe in his composition capacity too.

02:35:27 Rick Chinn: my first mir, i asked for jazz and got weather report.

02:35:40 jimrondinelli: Reacted to "my first mir, i ask..."

with 👍

02:35:55 Bob Smith: Reacted to "my first mir, i ask..."

with 👍

02:37:38 Donn Rutkoff: Ever work with Buster Poindexter, a.k.a. David Johanson?

02:40:15 Donn Rutkoff: Love the Harry Smith CD, sounds great, he channels Mississippi better than any Caucasian.

02:46:02 Bob Smith: This has been a great meeting. I need to leave now.

02:46:12 Jess Berg, AES PNW Committee (St. Paul, MN):

Reacted to "This has been a grea..." with ❤️

02:46:16 Robert Huott: Thanks for taking the time share your experiences, it's incredible to hear stories from so deep in the business. The clear message has been 'trust your ears'!!

02:46:17 Adam Dorn: THANKS EVERYONE!!!!

02:46:21 Steve Malott: Delightful and insightful meeting!

More, please!

02:46:23 Jayney Wallick: Glad you could make it Bob!
